There will be three coming out affairs, with several similar functions to be heard from later. The three debutants of the season already announced are Miss Roche, daughter of Mrs. Burke-Roche, Miss Constance Livermore, daughter of the Baroness Seil-Here, and Miss Anita Sands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sands, who will give a large coming out party at "Tower Hill."

Mrs. Ogden Mills will be among the principal entertainers, as usual, and besides the affairs on the steam yacht Felecia given by Mr. and Mrs. Mills, the villa will be the scene of a number of dinner dances.

Mrs, Ogden Goelet will begin her season of entertaining this week, with a series of luncheons. A dinner dance will be given in August.

The first grand horticultural exhibition of the Newport Horticultural Society will take place at the Newport Casino, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. This is a new departure for society, which has heretofore confined itself to two exhibitions yearly, the rose and strawberry show and the chrysanthemum show. However, public interest has been excited, and the coming event promises to be as successful as former exhibitions have been,

Prizes have been donated by Commodore Gerry, Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mrs. F. K. Sturgis, Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. Burke-Roche, Mrs. F. Neilson, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, and Hon, Frederick P. Garretson.
